Met Only Do We Get Inspiration From Nature, But Health as Well.

For people who are run-down and nervous, who suffer from indigestion or dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, or torpid liver, coated tongue with bitter taste in the morning and poor appetite, it becomes necessary to turn to some tonic or strengthener which will assist Nature and help thom to get on their feet and put the body into its proper condition. It is becoming more and more apparent that Nature's most valuable health giving agents are to be found in forest plants and roots.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce, mow consulting physician to the invalidational principles from native roots, taken from our American forests, he could produce a medicine which was marvelously efficient in curing cases of blood disorder and liver and stomach trouble as well as many other chronic, or linguring allments. This concentrated extract of Nature's vitality he named "Golden Medical Discovery." It purifies the blood by putting the stomach and liver into healthy condition, thereby helping the digestion and assimilation of food which feeds the blood. Thereby it cares weak stomach indigestion, torpid liver, or bliousness, and kindred derangements.

If you have coated tongue, with bitter or bad taste in the morning, frequent headaches, feel weak, easily tired, stitches or path in side, back gives out easily and aches, beliching of gas, constipation, or irregular bowels, feel flashes of heat alternating with chilly sensations or kindred symptoms, they point to derangement of your summach, liver and kidneys, which the "Golden Medical Discovery" will carreet more speedily and permanently than any other known agent. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drug. All its ingredients printed in pinic English on wrapper.

YESTERDAY'S CONSISTORY.

At the secret consistory held yesterday in Rome in place of the public consistory previously planned, Cardinal Samassa, Archbishop of St. Rigonia, Hungary, who was present, although still suffering from illness, received the red hat. It was asserted after the ceremony that Cardinal Samassa's illness was seized upon as an excuse to avoid holding a public consistory yesterday morning. The real reason for the change, it was added, was that the Vatican authorities feared that an attempt might be made against the life of the Pope at a public consistory. This apprehension was based on the bomb outrage in St. Peter's November 18, and also on threatening letters recently addressed to the Pope.

Among the eighty-four bishops, created yesterday were the Most Rev.

Bishop of Portland, Me.; Mgr. John B. Morris, as Cosojutor Bishop of Little Rock, Ark., and Mgr. Giuseppi Aversa, papal delegate in Cuba, as Archbishop of Sardi.

The most significant appointments were those of ten new Frouch bishops which were made without any opposition on the part of the French government.

In his allocation the Pope said that every day the increasingly sad story of vicissitudes is beating down on the church, involving great misery.

"More than ever, now," the Pontiil said, "the church can be compared with a ship buffeted by the waves in the midst of the ocean. But our faith closs not vaciliate in the least. Indeed, we are more than ever sustained by our belief in the efficactious assistance of Christ, who, when the time to succor us comes, will rise and command the wind and sea to go down so that the perfect tranquality so much desired will beam on us."

beam on us."

"The greatest comfort of Catholicism, a comfort which is confounding the enemy," the Pope added, "is the singular concord which prevails throughout the episcopacy, so fully united to us. May God make all Catholics conform to these most brilliant examples of their pastors and follow their directions. This improves a secret duty on the Christian poses a sacred duty on the Christian profession which is emphasized by the present needs of religion; namely, that where (slluding to France) there is hostility against the church, the people there should be urged to proceed with compact strength, and in those regions (alluding to Spain) where hostility is threatened, Catholics should generously

MRS, GILLETTE'S ANGUISH.

Utterly heartbroken, Mrs. Frank S. Gillette, mother of Chester Gillette, the Herkimer, N. Y., murderer, will leave Denver, Col., today for that place to offer spiritual consolation and strength Imported, Switzer, Roqueto her firstborn.

Mrs. Gillette received the news of her son's reported confession yesterday at her humble little cottage in the outskirts of Denver. For a moment she was too dazed to speak, and tears welled in her kindly eyes.

"If Chester is guilty, I am glad he has confessed, even if he must die for it. which I hope he will not," she said.
"I hope his contession, if he made one as said, 'ruly came from the heart, so he will be forgiven by God. If he is repensive him for his right. tant, God will forgive him for his sins. I have a mother's confidence, though, that he did not kill th t poor girl "
Mrs. Gillette blames herselt for the crime of her son. Now that the veil of mystery and doubt has been raised, she says she can look back to her younger days before Chester was born and recall times when she gave way to paroxyama of griel and hate which she believes left its imprint upon ber first born. In speaking of these times, Mrs. Gilette said.

"I would rather see my son die by law then live out his life with a lie on his lips. I blame myself for what Chester is. I had not wanted to speak of this, for you newspaper people have all spoken of me as a poised and self-controlled woman. I am, perhaps, only because I have made myself so. I want to tell this for every young mother in this land to read and ponder well, if they love their children as I love, that they may be spared what I am enduring I want to Twenty-six merchants tell the young women who are going to become mothers to control themselves, to guard their throughts, to keep watch of the impulses of their hearts, for what they are their sons and daughters will be. Things that happened before he was born, is what Chester is paying for now.

While the report that Gillette has con-fessed that he killed Grace Brown has not been confirmed, it is generally be-lieved that he has told all to his attor-
